Introduction

This volume contains a description and analysis of the table medals issued within the Austro-Hungarian Empire. The period covered is from the reign of Franz Joseph I in 1836 to the end of the Reign of Karl in 1918. This will include medals issued by entities other than the central Austro-Hungarian governments so long as they are directly related to the military mission of the government. The material covered in this volume will include order related table medals and table medals issued by the central government for a wide range of reasons. Thus the reader can expect to find information within this volume on the following subjects:

Order Related Table Medals

Military Maria Theresia Order Folgaria Commemoration Medal (Militar-Maria Theresien Orden Folgaria Erinnerungsmedaille)

Date Issued: May 15, 1916

Reason Issued: This medal was authorized to commemorate the Austrian Punitive Expedition at Folgaria.

Classes or Types: Two, Silver (white metal) and bronze

Interesting Facts: In November 1916 Emperor Karl I assumed the throne in Austria. As emperor he automatically became the Chancellor of the Military Order of Maria Theresia. He was also by statute and tradition was entitled to wear the Grand Cross of all orders and the 1st class of all decorations. However he was reluctant to wear the grand cross of the Military Maria Theresia Order in time of war without having done anything to earn the award. In December when he assumed supreme command of the army he made an inquiry of its leadership and that of the Navy as to whether they thought it appropriate for him to wear the Grand Cross of the Maria Theresia Order. They apparently advised him that his leadership during the Austrian counteroffensive in the Asiago in May 15, 1916 met the requirement for him to honorably wear the order. As a result the Military Maria Theresia Order, Folgaria Commemoration Medal was issued to celebrate this victory but also to mark the success of the emperor. When one observes the medal it is obvious that it is intended to honor not only the victory at Folgaria but also the part played in that victory by Emperor Karl I.

Hallmarks: None Known

Design: A round medal

Obverse: The bust of Emperor Karl I wearing a Field Marshals uniform with the Order of the Golden Fleece facing to the viewers right. Around the top edge of the medal in front and behind the bust of the emperor is the inscription: .CAROLVS . IMP . ET . REX. Translation: Charles Emperor and King. Near the seven o'clock position on the obverse of the medal is the name of the engraver: H Kautsch.

Reverse: A wreath composed of oak (on the viewers right) and laurel (on the viewers left) boughs crossed at the bottom. Vertically superimposed on the wreath is an unsheathed sword. The sword has a ribbon wrapped around the upper portion of the blade and the grand cross star of the Order of Maria Theresia superimposed over the center of the blade. There is a fine ring forming a border within the edge of the medal that is so placed that some of the leaves of the wreath and the ends of the sword pass over it. There is an inscription placed between this ring and the edge of the medal. It reads FOLGARIA at the top of the medal below which is XV MAI MCMXVI. Translation: Folgaria May 15, 1916. Near the three o'clock position on the reverse of the medal is the name of the engraver: H Kautsch.

Weight:

- Silver Medal: Unknown
- Bronze Medal: 113.6-113.9 grams

Size: 65.3 mm in diameter

Airship-Lieutenant Demeter Konjovic Commemoration Medal
(Luftschiff-Leutnant Hauser Erinnerungsmedaille)

Date Issued: 1917

Reason Issued: To commemorate the service of Linienschiffsleutnant Demeter Konjovic commander of the seaplane basis from Šibenik to the Albanian border.

Classes or Types: One

Interesting Facts:

- At the outbreak of World War I Demeter Konjovic was an officer and commander of a naval squadron. At the end of 1914, at his request, he underwent a year of pilot training until the end of 1915, when he started to participate on air patrols in the northern Adriatic Sea. He was then appointed commander of all seaplane bases from Šibenik to the Albanian border. On September 15, 1915, Linienschiffsleutnant Konjović and three other officers, surprised a French submarine Foucault (Q70), bombed it and sank it. This was the first time that an aircraft had sunk a submarine. By the end of the war Konjović had reached the rank of Frigate captain. After the armistice in 1918 was appointed the first head of the Naval Aviation of the new country of Yugoslavia, remaining in this position until 1923.
- The image on the reverse of the medal appears to be referencing a famous event in which Konovic rescued the crew of an aircraft that had crashed near Valona on February 2, 1916.
